URBAN DAYS

Seminar on applications for the call for proposals of Innovative Actions

Evening - October 20, 2022 | GIJÓN

The URBAN DAYS event in Gijón will host a technical seminar aimed to explain and advise the design of proposals linked to the first call for Innovative Actions under the European Urban Initiative. This call is scheduled to be launched at European level prior to the URBACT event in Gijón.

This workshop will be a replica of the seminar that will take place on October 19 in Brussels in the European Week of Regions and Cities.

There will be a general presentation and individualized advice sessions for the design of proposals for the Innovative Actions Call for Proposals. All cities that wish to participate in this seminar will be able to work specifically on the design of proposals and applications.

This seminar will have two parts:

1. General presentation on technical information related to project design and call for projects: application form; intervention logic; funding, eligibility rules, project budget; transfer mechanism; knowledge and communication, etc.
2. Individual sessions of a maximum of 15 minutes duration with staff from the European Urban Initiative Secretariat. A maximum of 12 consultations will be held, of which 8 may be in Spanish and 4 in English. In other words, there will be a maximum of 8 rounds of individualized consultations of 15 minutes each.

Cities wishing to receive these individualized sessions should sign up by sending an email to es.urbact@gmail.com with the subject "URBAN DAYS Innovative Actions Seminar Attendance". They should specify: name, surname, city, and organization to which they belong.

15.45-16.30 General Presentation

16.30-18.30 Individual Sessions
